Rising up
Can you feel my adrenaline pumping?
It's too much
Just a crush I can't deny

I don't wanna hold back no more
It's too hard for me to ignore
Gonna show you what you've been waiting for Let's make this real

Why imagine what our love could be?
You know you wanna
Touch the passion that's inside of me
Get outta your mind

Lose your body control
You'll never get high 'till you let it all go
So why imagine
Just how good our love could be?

In the dark
It's the heat of the moment that matters
Like a spark
That is turned into a fire

We're face to face in a crowded room
And the only thing that I wanna do
Is feel my heartbeat next to you
This is for real
