Won't be so easy
This time to hurt me
You can try
This time, know baby, there are no tears left here to dry
If you think you can woe me like before
If you think you can do that anymore
Won't get to far, nooo
You can't break a broken heart

So try your best now baby
Try your best to break me
You can't break a broken heart
No damage you can do now
I'm immune to you now
You can't break what broke apart
There's nothing you can do to me no more
You can't break a broken heart

Hurt me before now
Won't hurt no more now
Not this time
You might do better messing with someone else's mind
Cuz you're not gonna break me down again
Your done with doin' me the way you did
It's gone to far, eh
You can't break a broken heart

So try your best now baby
Try your best to break me
You can't break a broken heart
No damage you can do now
I'm immune to you now
You can't break what broke apart
There's nothing you can do to me no more
You can't break a broken heart

So don't waste your time
Your time has come and gone
What are you here for?
You can't hurt me any more

So try your best now baby
Try your best to break me
You can't break a broken heart
No damage you can do now
I'm immune to you now
You can't break what broke apart
There's nothing you can do to me no more
You can't break a broken heart

So try your best now baby
Try your best to break me
You can't break a broken heart
I'm immune to you now
You can't break a broken heart

Break a broken heart
