Always want what I can't have
The resisting drives me mad
Pulls me closer when you do
I want you more

You walk away
And then you stay
I disguise
Want you to be
The one I see
In your eyes

I don't want to close the door
Let me dream a little longer
Want to read between the lines
In Your eyes

Always want what I can't have
If I love won't regret
( The ) feeling's stronger and I know
I want you more

Chorus

This is more than imagination
This is how it's supposed to feel
It goes deeper than what I know is real
In Your eyes

Chorus
