You're the lover that I sigh for
The wonder I even live for
The wonder I would have died for You're the lover that I cried for
Malgue?a hear me sighing
For you left me sad and lonely
Can't you see
That you're my one and helming
Malgue?a hear me crying
Can't you see
My heart is dying
Can't you me
Oh why employ you
I love ev'ry thing about you
My life is nothing without you

Malgue?a hear me saying
For you left me sad and lonely
Can't you see
That you're my one and helming
Malgue?a hear me crying
Can't you see
My heart is dying
Can't you me
Oh why employ you
I love ev'ry thing about you
My life is nothing without you
Malgue?a aha aha
