I'm going home downhearted and hoping
I'm close to some new beginning
I know there's a reason for everything that comes and goes

But so many people are looking to me
To be strong and to fight but I'm just surviving
I may be weak but I'm never defeated
And I'll keep believing in clouds with that sweet silver lining

Most days I try my best to put on a brave face
But inside my bones are cold and my heart breaks
But all the while something's keeping me safe and alive

But so many people are looking to me
To be strong and to fight but I'm just surviving

I may be weak but I'm never defeated
And I'll keep believing in clouds with that sweet silver lining

And I won't give up like this, I will be given strength
Now that I've found it nothing can take that away

So many people are looking to me
To be strong and to fight but I'm just surviving
I may be weak but I'm never defeated
And I'll keep believing

So many people are looking to me
To be strong and to fight but I'm just surviving
I may be weak but I'm never defeated
And I'll keep believing in clouds with that sweet silver lining
Sweet silver lining
