Haven't you heard?
I'm stuck on a verse
I'm stuck on a boy who fills me with joy
I knew I was wrong to jump straight on into the picture so pretty
But he is so pretty to me

And he doesn't know just how far I would go Just to kiss him
He doesn't know how I pine

So I make whirlpools
And watch him sparkle
And we'll make love make magic

And haven't you heard?
I'm fallen head first
And he loves me so
We're two in a row
Just look in his eyes

They're blue as the skies are picture so pretty
but he is so pretty to me

So I make whirlpools
And watch him sparkle
And we'll make love make magic

But I couldn't tell you Just tell that it takes you 'Cause words don't make what I make with you

Haven't you heard?
I'm stuck on a verse
I'm stuck on a boy who fills me with joy
I knew I was wrong to jump straight on into this picture so pretty
but he is so pretty to me
