I remember when
You swam across the night
We pushed away the starry sky (the starry sky)
And everything we said
Was echoed with a smile
You promised me we'd stay awhile, but just awhile

I thought that it could last
But the sun came out so fast
And chased away all the dreams I had

Hold me close to let me go
You tell me yes when it's a no
You never know, so walk away
It's no use, don't bother saying
That you'll miss me when you're busy
'Cause all your circles keep me dizzy
We'll never know, so walk away
I've had enough, I can show what it takes
To learn from my mistakes

So, now you wanna talk
To say we'll just be friends
The conversation never ends (it never ends)
So, save your empty words
I've heard them all before
And I can't take it anymore, I'm making sure

That this time it will last
The sun will never pass
I'll chase away the shadows that we had

Hold me close to let me go
You tell me yes when it's a no
You never know, so walk away
It's no use, don't bother saying
That you'll miss me when you're busy
'Cause all your circles keep me dizzy
We'll never know, so walk away
I've had enough, I can show what it takes
To learn from my mistakes

I'm giving you back the things you gave me
All your maybes make me crazy
I'm so tired of waiting around for you

You hold me close to let me go
You tell me yes when it's a no
You never know, so walk away
It's no use, don't bother saying
That you'll miss me when you're busy
'Cause all your circles keep me dizzy
We'll never know, so walk away
I've had enough, I can show what it takes
To learn from my mistakes

I can show what it takes
To learn from my mistakes
