My old man
I'm a chip off the old block
My old man
Is still living here
Not in flesh and bone
He's never far from home
I'm forever walking in my daddy's shoes
I've got his misery
I've got good company
I guess I'll always be my daddy's girl...

My momma sang
Call it inspiration
And she's comin' on through me
I can feel her now
Though she walks on the other side
To me she's still quite alive
I'm forever rocking in my momas arms

Mom had a broken heart
From a world just too damn hard
Mine breaks often cuz I'm a momma's girl

You spend a lifetime saying
This is who I am
Ohh
Then you find yourself saying something
You don't understand
You look in the mirror
And there you are
You're daddy's girl

You spend a lifetime saying
This is who I am
Ohh
Then you find yourself saying something
You don't understand
You look in the mirror,
And there you are...

My old man,
I'm a chip off the old block

My old man,
Is still living here
Not in flesh and bone
He's never far from home
I'm forever walkin in my daddy's shoes
I got his misery -
I've got good company
I guess I'll always be my daddy's girl
I guess I'll always be my daddy's girl
Daddy's girl
