I could sit in this house
In this room, In this bed
Just as long as Iâ€™m feeling this way

And boy since youâ€™ve been away
I can't sleep, Iâ€™ve been awake
I just lay here trying to deal with this pain

Four walls and no you (wow)
The silence in this room is so loud
No one else can fix it but you

Damn, itâ€™s so hard to face
I lost you
Whyâ€™d I throw your heart away
Now Iâ€™m going down
Like Iâ€™m on the ground
I lost you
I lost you (baby)

Iâ€™m sitting here wishing I could change the past
Knowing deep inside I canâ€™t get my baby back
I lost you
I lost you
Oh baby I just can't stand the way that I lost you

Iâ€™ve been trying
To put the pieces of a picture
Back together
But it just don't look the same

(I feel sick I need a medic) â€™Cause my heartâ€™s stopped beating
And I feel like Iâ€™m slipping away

Four walls and no you (no you oh wow)
The silence in this room is so loud
No one else can fix it but you

Damn, itâ€™s so hard to face
I lost you
Whyâ€™d I throw your heart away

Now Iâ€™m going down
Like Iâ€™m on the ground
I lost you
I lost you

Iâ€™m sitting here wishing I could change the past
Knowing deep inside canâ€™t get my baby back
I lost you
I lost you
Oh baby I just can't stand the way that I lost you

And I donâ€™t know how Iâ€™m gonna make it
Iâ€™m going crazy
But maybe somehow
You can find your way
Find your way back to me

Damn, it's so hard to face
I lost you
Now Iâ€™m going down
I lost you
I lost you

Iâ€™m sitting here wishing I could change the past
I lost you
I lost you
(and I can't stand the way) I just can't stand the way that I lost you

Damn, it's so hard to face
I lost you
Now Iâ€™m going down
Like Iâ€™m on the ground
I lost you
I lost youâ€¦
