Sweet little duck I've been waiting for you
Wearing my heart on my sleeve
And I sleep through most days
So the time goes by
And I think I drink more now than ever

'cause you've got me on your shelf and I just sit here
Think about when everything was right
And you say you don't got any answers
Well I'm tired of you not making up your mind
And on Tuesday I'll be back for my things

And sweet little duck I've been waiting for you

But I still wear my heart on my sleeve
I'm gonna set things right
I got a job down south
Don't you think about coming after me
Cause you got me on your shelf and I just sit here
Think about when everything was right
And you say you don't got any answers
Well I'm tired of you not making up your mind
And on Tuesday I'll be back for my things
