When you taught me how to dance
Years ago, with misty eyes
Every step and silent glance,
every move, a sweet surprise
Someone must have taught you well,
to beguile and to entrance
For that night you cast your spell,
and you taught me how to dance

Like reflections in a lake
I recall what went before As I give, I'll learn to take, and will be alone no more Other lights may light my way
I may even find romance;
But I won't forget that night
when you taught me how to dance

Cold winds blow, but up on those hills you'll find me
And I know you're walking right behind me

When you taught me how to dance
Years ago, with misty eyes
Every step and silent glance,
every move, a sweet surprise
Someone must have taught you well,
to beguile and to entrance
For that night you cast your spell,
and you taught me how to dance
And you taught me how to dance
