Black robed avenger
Rides upon a white horse through my mind
In search of love, he finds
A spectral planet lost in space and time

He dreams of paradise
Suspended animation greets his eyes

Across barren deserts
A universal wilderness he seeks
Palaces crumbled
Skeletons remain, of fallen kings

Bleak storms and hurricanes
He braved to discover loves atomic grave

He found salvation
Within a void of loneliness and pride
The land of selfish man
A [Incomprehensible] frozen world in winter's hands

A weary traveler
Stares into the heart of human kind
Souls of planet Earth
Entombed inside a giant ball of ice
