I suppose there are those who need nobody
But I propose heaven knows a better way
From the start our hands and hearts are made
To hold on...to someone

You and I realize the beauty of a
Tie that binds -- without it life is hard enough
Someone up there knows it, too, because
Like prayer...you were there

You've got a friend for life
For all of time
There will always be a bridge between
Your heart and mine
Come what may we never say goodbye
You've got a friend for life

Rain or shine
Years and miles can't separate us
For auld lang syne
You and I will stand and sing
We'll laugh and cry in the remembering
All the love...and the glory of

You've got a friend for life
For all of time
There will always be a bridge between
Your heart and mine
Come what may we never say goodbye
You've got a friend for life

Remember anytime
The world is on your shoulders
When the clouds appear
Or you're feeling small
Let me be the one you call

You've got a friend for life
For all of time
There will always be a bridge between
Your heart and mine

Come what may we never say goodbye
You've got a friend for life
(Tag):
Come what may
We never say goodbye
Let's be brave
And never say goodbye
You've got a friend for life
