I am lyin', I am tryin', I want so much to believe I am flyin', and that high and fast is where I'm supposed to be
But if I'm honest, if I'm forced to tell it straight I'm afraid of heights and edges, and I need to find a place
Where I can...

Chorus:

Take the time to go deep into the moment
I've got nothin' left to prove Make my mind slow down in the middle of all that motion
Let myself be moved
And be still

I am learnin', I am thinkin', I am ready to be touched
I am breathin', I am feelin', learnin' how to trust myself, and then
After spinning in the wind
I am rooted to the earth, and I'm reaching up again
So I can...

Chorus:

Take the time to go deep into the moment
motion
Let myself be moved
And be still

I am listening
I am listening
Somethin' tells me what I'll find
If I can...

Chorus:

Take the time to go deep into the moment
motion

Let myself be moved

So I can take the time to go deep into the moment
motion
Let myself be moved
And be still
