Here I am in my room all alone
I've been hoping that you would phone
Baby, I'm still waiting for you to come home
After all, all these years

Every day I dream of your face
No other man could take your place
But oh these feelings, I just can't erase
After all, all these years

You excite me with the way you walk
I miss your pillow talk
No other love could make love to my mind
My body aches for you but I won't take from you
I'll give you all of my loving this time
This time baby
Said I'm gonna give you all the love, all the love that I can find

You don't know what I've been through
You see, I'm dedicated to loving you
Can we be one instead of two?
After all, all these years

Baby I know I've caused you some pain
And I've been filled with guilt and shame
But now you want me to have your name
After all these years

You excite me with the way you walk
I miss your pillow talk
No other love could make love
To my mind
My body aches for you but I won't

Take from you
I'll give you all of my loving this time
This time baby, I will
Said I'm gonna give you all the love, all the love that I can find
After all these years

After all, ah yeah, after all these years
After all, after all these years, yeah
After all, ah yeah, after all these years

You dont know what Ive been through
You see, Im dedicated to loving you
Can we be, we be one instead of two?
After all these years

I love you more than my money
And I know that you love me too
Your lips are still sweet as honey
So I know Im gonna be true
This feels so good to me baby
That I gotta let go of my fears
We've got to keep this together
After all these years

After all, ah yeah, after all these years
You know that I love you
I really, really do
After all.
