Guess I didn't know how to take it
The night we had that talk
Found out about my replacement
I just smiled and shook it off

I didn't ask you any questions
Didn't beg you to stay
You said that you knew I would understand
Then I watched you drive away
When there's just no words to say

I scream at the top of my lungs
Yeah, I come undone
I crash like broken glass
When no one's around
I cry out in the silence I can't take
To cover up the sound it makes
When I let my heart break
I scream

I scream

I always say the right things
At all the right times
I know I'm not the perfect girl
But for some reason, I try

To be the one who's smilin' and laughin'
To amke sure everyone's okay
I can push those tears back inside
Like an actress on the stage
But when the curtain falls away

I scream at the top of my lungs
Yeah, I come undone
I crash like broken glass
When no one's around
I cry out in the silence I can't take
To cover up the sound it makes
When I let my heart break
I scream

I scream

When I can't hold it in no more
And I don't feel like playing nice
When I feel like gettin' loud
I just gotta let it out
I just gotta let it out

I scream at the top of my lungs
Yeah, I come undone
I crash like broken glass
When no one's around
I cry out in the silence I can't take
To cover up the sound it makes
When I let my heart break
I scream

I scream
I scream
I scream
