I am lyin', I am tryin'
I want so much to believe
I am flyin', and that high and fast is where I'm supposed to be

But if I'm honest
If I'm forced to tell it straight
I'm afraid of heights and edges
And I need to find a place

Where I can take the time
To go deep into the moment
I got nothin' left to prove

Make my mind slow down
In the middle of all that motion
Let myself be moved and be still

I am learnin', I am thinkin'
I am ready to be touched
I am breathin', I am feelin'
Learnin' how to trust myself

And then after spinnin' in the wind
I am rooted to the earth
And I'm reachin' up again

So I can take the time
To go deep into the moment

Make my mind slow down
In the middle of all that motion
Let myself be moved and be still

I am listenin', I am listenin'
Something tells me what I'll find

If I can take the time
To go deep into the moment

Make my mind slow down
In the middle of all that motion
Let myself be moved

So I can take the time
To go deep into the moment

Make my mind slow down
In the middle of all that motion
Let myself be moved and be still
And be still, and be still
