We are entertainers living in a scene where nobody slows down
Busy making little pieces into things that dare to make a sound
Fall like an angel, try like a fool and dare to walk away
Each of us has got a little Charlie Chaplin inside us

Sayin'
"Hey fellas why don't we go
Where movies are silent
And life is as big as the stage."

Waitin' on a clocker, waitin' on a view and hopin' that it's new
We all got to find something to do
Well I say we take on the strange and insane
Come on let's pick up our hats and our canes

And say,
"Hey fellas why don't we go
Where the movies are silent
And life is as big as the stage."

Waddle your way to the sunset today
Waddle your way to the sunset today
Oh, waddle your way to the sunset today
And oh anything, for a laugh
Oh, anything for a laugh

"Hey fellas why don't we go where the movies are silent and life is as big as the stage."
