Dusty Smiles and heartbreak cures,
Cannot fix what you endure.
Saw you leavin' again today,
Gettin' out the cowards way.

Saw you leavin on a train,
Not knowing what your gonna gain.
Until you've worked out a way,
Your not coming home to stay

CHORUS:

Honey your smile makes me cry,
And now I've stopped asking why
The day you leave me for sure
Is when I stop asking for more.

Why do you run away from life,
Leaving wrinkles underneath my eyes.
When you talk I'm never sure,
Why your running for the door.

CHORUS

The day you leave me for sure,
Is when I'll stop asking for more.
