How can I say it? Where do I begin?
Everything you are is just what it says on the tin
Words that were honest spoken from the heart Everything you did was just what you said from the start

You are the angel with whom I would gladly live in sin
Thanks for being exactly what it says on the tin
I never doubted and though I never shouted from the roof
All about it, I'm with you every day as living proof

Ain't gonna lose now
Such a lot to win
'Cause I will always know
You're just what it says on the tin

You are the angel with whom I would gladly live in sin
Thanks for being exactly what it says on the tin
I never doubted and though I never shouted from the
roof
All about it, I'm with you every day as living proof

Ain't gonna lose now
Such a lot to win
'Cause I will always know
You're just what it says on the tin
You're just what it says on the tin
You're just what it says on the tin
