What you don't know
Is that I love you
And what you don't know, whoa
Is how much I care
And what you don't see
Are my dreams about you
I dream about you,
I dream about you

But I'm afraid to let you in,
And I'm afraid to let you know,
Yes, I'm afraid to let my love show

It's so peculiar
This thing that we've found.
It's so amazing, yeah
How loud my heart does sound
Feel the pulse,
It's beating only for you,
Oh, it's beating only,
Beating only for you.

But I'm afraid to let you in,
And I'm afraid to let you know,
Yes, I'm afraid to let my love show

Don't you wonder of this timing
It's mysteriously, yeah, mystifying
I'm head over feet,
Flying all around
Oh, won't you catch me
Before I hit the ground

But I'm afraid to let you in,
And I'm afraid to let you know,
Yes, I'm afraid to let my love show.

But I won't be afraid to let you in,
I won't be afraid to let you know,
And, I won't be afraid to let my love show.
