{A cover, a cover}
Alright, alright

Some say I am just okay
Some wait until it's way too late, too late
Come on decide today, yeah
We must start tellin' our Lift our voice up and shout out loud
Turn the gray away

He's calling you to stop coming from the rain
For He's waiting all this time to see
If you would make the change

If you really wanna see the fire fall
If you really wanna hear Him when He calls
If you really wanna know the real thing
Gotta let it go, gotta let Him flow through you
If you really wanna serve Him with your heart
If you really wanna promise set apart
If you really wanna go the distance
Gotta make a choice, can't you hear His voice calling?

No more living like it's fine
No more wasting all your time, no time
Said your life is all a lie, yeah
Your new, giving all you got What's wrong, now you're living hot, so hot
He's walkin' by your side

Stop now and hear His voice is calling you to see Then He walks the walk into your life, and share your destiny
Oh oh oh

If you really wanna see the fire fall
If you really wanna hear Him when he calls
If you really wanna know the real thing
Gotta let it go, gotta let Him flow through you
If you really wanna serve Him with your heart
If you really wanna promise set apart
If you really wanna go the distance

Gotta make a choice, can't you hear His voice calling?

If you really wanna see the fire fall
If you really wanna hear Him when he calls
If you really wanna know the real thing
Gotta let it go, gotta let Him flow through you
If you really wanna serve Him with your heart
If you really wanna promise set apart
If you really wanna go the distance
Gotta make a choice, can't you hear His voice calling?

I lay them down Lord, every last little thing You said
They came, they gave me life and live abundantly
I decide to walk with You, I'm not holdin' on to this world
Selling every thing I got to purchase Your precious pearl
Make me vessel in Your father, You love that what were tryin'
Take a source about the mile, Lord, I'm ready to go on high
Tired of standing at Your cross I'm ma jump up on it Telling me shackles begone I'm singing freedom song, come on

I'm gonna stand for what I believe
Jesus, the man he's had me fray
He's had me free, yea, yea, yea

If you really wanna see the fire fall
If you really wanna hear Him when he calls
If you really wanna know the real thing
Gotta let it go, gotta let Him flow through you
If you really wanna serve Him with your heart
If you really wanna promise set apart
If you really wanna go the distance
Gotta make a choice, can't you hear His voice calling?

If you really wanna see the fire fall
If you really wanna hear Him when he calls
If you really wanna know the real thing
Gotta let it go, gotta let Him flow through you
If you really wanna serve Him with your heart
If you really wanna promise set apart
If you really wanna go the distance
Gotta make a choice, can't you hear His voice?
