We're not strong enough to bend,
We're not strong enough to say we can forgive.
We're not brave enough to fall,
Oh, an' we're not big enough to risk it all.

Chorus:
But love is.
Love is.
It's always been, it always will be.
We may not be perfect,
But love is.

We can't trust what we can't see.
We're not strong enough to fight them, we feel weak.
We can't resist another flame,
We're not able to live above the blame.

Chorus:
But love is.
Love is.
It's always been, it always will be.
We may not be perfect,
But love is.

Bridge.
We may not be written,
Anywhere close to stars,
But wherever we are,
Love is.

It's always been, it always will be.
Life may not be perfect;
Oh, we may not be perfect,
But love is.
Love is.
Ooh.
