"Mother"

Mother is journey
Mother is home
Mother is mild
Mother a storm
Who's gonna catch you when you fall
Help you to stand up tall
Give you her sweater
Kiss and make it better

(Chorus)
Mother
All that I am and ever hope to be
I owe her for what she's given me
No other could ever believe like she does in me
I love her
Mother

Mother is spinach
Mother is cake
Mother is human
She makes mistakes
Could I forgive her for her wrongs?
In ways they've made me strong
Leave well enough alone
I would never cast a stone

(Chorus)
I'll always love her

She is the earth, she is the sky
The ocean that I cry
Mother, the sun, the moon
Time passes all too soon

(Chorus)
