To have and to hold, to satisfy your soul
An everlasting choice, a strong inner voice
Do you know that your dreams always come true?
Do you ever dream about me?
Dancer in the dark, made a last remark
Elegant and strong, I know where you belong
Do you know that you always shine a light?
Do you know that you're mine, all mine?
Its in the way that you move
Youre my vanity
Its in the way that you smile
Sweet serenity
I didn't come here to beg
But I must surrender
I didn't come here to steal
But Im your offender
To have and to hold, to satisfy your soul
An everlasting choice, a strong inner voice
Do you know that you always shine a light?
Do you know that you're mine, all mine?
Its in the way that you move
Youre my vanity
Its in the way that you smile
Sweet serenity
I didn't come here to beg
But I must surrender
I didn't come here to steal
But Im your offender
