When we had our fights
I knew that our love wouldn't last that long
So when you broke my heart
I knew I'd have to leave town all alone
And 'cause I was so mad
I didn't wanna see your face again
Now I'm 46 miles from Alice
And I'm thousands of miles from my home.

Now people seem to ask
Why I'm always crying all the time
But I don't speak of faded love
So I just walk away and say that I'll be fine
My heart is broke in two
And my eyes will cry a river of love

Yes I'm 46 miles from Alice
And I'm thousands of miles from my home.

Now when I sleep at night
Well I pray that when I wake I'll be at home
But when the morning comes
Well I lie and I cry 'cause I was wrong
But I'm oh so far away
And I'm out of town and oh so far from home
Yes I'm 46 miles from Alice
And I'm thousands of miles from my home.
Yes I'm 46 miles from Alice
And I'm thousands of miles from my home.
