It's like I'm on the bottom of your boots
Somethin' you brush off when you're through
It's like you never even notice when I've been on you
Like I'm on the bottom of your boots.

It's like I've been sittin' on a discount shelf
Red tagged, marked down, last one left.
Like you're savin' all your money for somethin' else
Pickin' me up off the discount shelf.

Well you can keep all your pennies
Keep 'em in your pocket don't throw 'em at me
Cause my love ain't dirt cheap.
I'm not a yard sale special on a dead end street
I'll never be a buy one get one free
No my love ain't dirt cheap
No my love ain't dirt cheap.

I used to be a diamond in your eyes
Like a precious stone that's hard to find.
On your darkest day you said I'd shine
A precious diamond in your eyes.

Now it's like I'm at a pawn shop
Waitin' for you to trade somethin' for me
But my love ain't dirt cheap
I'm not a yard sale special on a dead end street
I'll never be a buy one get one free
No my love ain't dirt cheap

No my love ain't dirt cheap

I can't keep on thinkin'

One day you'll believe I'm worth somethin' more

Than a candy in a dime store

No I can't do that any more.

CHORUS
