Darlin' I'm cashing my chips at the bar
'Cause I've got no money to my name
And you've gone and left me
With this ragged old car
And now I'm learning to forgive my heart

Chorus :

'Cause my heart is the one to blame
The one who put me

Through this heartache and shame
The one who tore me apart
Now I'm learning to forgive my heart.

Now I'm out here wasting my money on gin
And I'm gonna make a toast to my heart
And all of the barflies are cashing it in They're also learning to forgive their hearts.

Chorus

The one who tore me apart
Now I'm learning to forgive my heart.
