(music: Fabio Silva/Sandro Silva - lyrics: Fabio Silva)

Here I am, trying to be someone again

Seeing my horizon not so gray

A strong will that guides me

Feeling like I've never felt

Ready to return to my own way

Bridge:

Do the same and now stand up

Bring it back from anywhere

Always fighting for yourself

Look Ahead! That's an order

Never think of looking back

Always fighting for yourself

Chorus:

Be a lightning in the shadows

Lighting up things in the air

Let your flame burn

I hope you understand

And the river of 'maybe'

Stopped running inside me

Just a new emotion in my veins

This emotion shows me that my life is an open book

Following on a track like an old train

Bridge

Chorus
