(music & lyrics: Fabio Silva)

I fight until the end

I make of my dreams an alive and kicking reality

And people say to me

"You are insane! Have you another fantasy?"

I answer "Yes I do" - All right to me

It's the way I want to live

I face my life without pride or fear

Pride and fear don't last

I know, one day, I can find a wall.. very high...

Chorus:

I dry my tears than I start again

I'm man enough to cry

Beyond my limits, against my pride

Man enough to cry

A wall can be a dare

But anyway we must cross walls that we'll find ahead

I do everything I wish

I really turn my dreams into somethin' that I can reach

Don't be afraid when you need to cry

Losses make we learn

I face my life without pride or fear

Pride and fear don't last

I know, one day, I've really found a wall... very high...

Chorus

Oh Yeah! Man enough to cry...
