(Charlie Williams - Scott Turner)

There you go driving in your big long car
You got a house overlooking the town
But be nice to everybody on your way up
You're gonna need 'em again coming down.

You don't even speak when we pass on the street
You don't even know your old friends
But don't get too proud you're gonna need the old crowd
'Cause we all remember you when.

Well, there you go driving in your big long car
You got a house overlooking the town
But be nice to everybody on your way up
You're gonna need 'em again coming down.

--- Instrumental ---

Not long ago you crossed over the tracks
And now you don't know me at all
It takes a long time you know for a big tree to grow
But just a few seconds to fall.

Well, there you go driving in your big long car
You got a house overlooking the town
But be nice to everybody on your way up
You're gonna need 'em again coming down.

Yeah, there you go driving in your big long car
You got a house overlooking the town
But be nice to everybody on your way up
You're gonna need 'em again coming down.

You're gonna need 'em again coming down.
You're gonna need 'em again coming down...
