Has there ever been a moment so good?
Has there ever been a morning so bright?
You know the whole world looks different
Since I found you

Before we touched was I really alive?
Some things you just know for sure
Beyond a shadow of a doubt
Now I'm too into you to ever turn my heart around

Is the sun gonna shine on a rainy night?
I don't think so
Does once in a lifetime happen twice?
I don't think so

Could I want you any more?
Could anything ever be more right?
Can words explain
How deep
