How do you explain the way the stars just hang way up in the sky How do you explain the way rain goes away whenever you walk by

It's a mystery just how life can lead to a place you've never been You've knocked on that door a hundred times before, when it suddenly let you in

I don't know why
I've been so blessed to love someone like you
I don't know why
I must confess, I only know I do And how do you explain the way my world has changed right before my eyes And how do you explain the way you gave me wings when I swore I could never fly

It's a mystery what you've done for me I'm at a place I've never been I've knocked on that door a hundred times before now you've suddenly let me in

In my heart, I won't question I'll just lay here in your arms
