I am a brute but I abstain
I am foolish, I am vain
Yeah I'm a fan
I am the brother of a famous man
I am gorgeous, I am right
I have left this planet but I'll be back
I am delicious, I am crap

I, I am all of that
I, I am all of that

I am smooth but I am crusted
I am speechless, I can be trusted
Yeah I'm baby blue
I am the nursery attached to you
I've been happy, I've been sad
I graced this planet experienced that
I've been set up, I've been set back

I, I've been all of that
I, I've been all of that

I am enormous, I am slight
I have left this planet but I'll be back
I am religious, I am fat

I, I am all of that
I, I am all of that
I, I am all of that

Soon the time will come
When everybody's somebody
So nobody is anybody
And everybody's somebody
And nobody is anybody
And everybody's somebody
And nobody is anybody
