Right now, feel like something far gone
Stripped down
Seems like everything I did was wrong
Well, maybe

Delicately laid to rest
In the house of mummy's bless
Follow me inside
Delicately free of mind
A vacuum all the time
But it leaves me blind

Find out
Peel away the layers of my skin, baby
But be sure
Brace yourself for what lies within, baby

Delicately laid to rest
In the house of mummy's bless
Follow me inside
Delicately free of mind
A vacuum all the time
But it leaves me blind

Stripped down

Delicately laid to rest
In the house of mummy's bless
Follow me inside
Delicately free of mind
A vacuum all the time
