he tried his best at understanding sex in his own mind not learning much this understanding sucks in his own eyes yeah he's the biggest living creep yeah so bad it makes him weep what's the point supposed to be you all think the less of me so dream of something better choose your glitter (3x) he's past the stage of understanding rage in his own mind yeah he's been inside the cage yeah beside the snake
this will be the death of me dream of something better choose your glitter (3x)
the mirrored moon that he's been swinging from reflects the gay heart that he has become he cannot stand the loss of love, love, love where's it all supposed to get you get criticized for something better
