Someone said it's easy
And as I sit here with my cup
Staring at it as if I'm some crazy poet
When I'm not (I'm just a rock n' roll joe with tales of woe)
And tears and fears
It's only love that stops you from walking out the door
Tears fly somewhere close to remorse
And sometimes it's easy
To all my friends I love
I still don't find it easy
To all my friends I love

Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
I've arrived

Sally likes its sideways
Sally, oh, Sally don't ever change
And please don't think me scary
'Cause I'm not, I'm just a rock n' roll joe with tales of
woe
And tears and fears
It's only love that stops you from walking out the door
And tears fly somewhere close to remorse
But sometimes it's easy
To all my friends I love
Now I find this easy
To all my friends I love, I love, I love

Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
I finally arrived
And somewhere close to here
Goodbye, goodbye

Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
I finally arrived
Goodbye, goodbye
