Don't feel sad, don't feel blue
It's all stupid, yeah
All I feel comes back of you
And I'm so happy

'Cos I feel I'm, I'm at forty five degrees
That's when love tips up for me
And keep it understood, the elevations good
And love tips up for me, for me, for me

Please let me kiss your peculiar lips
For some sympathy
'Cos I've always maintained
That you've always been stranger than me
Is that the way it's meant to be?

I'm at forty five degrees
And that's when love tips up for me
So keep it understood the elevations good
And love tips up for me

Yeah don't it make you feel?
Yeah don't it make you feel?
Yeah don't it make you feel?
High

'Cos I feel I'm at forty five degrees
That's when love tips up for me
When all of this is done, it's dizzy I've become
And love tips up for me
Yeah for me

Just when I'm alone and then I feel
I'm lost in love
