Old style in it seems they've brought you everything There's an old style in of days when we were all thirteen
Yeah these pictures of love are a testament of the memories

When I think of you
It's shocking
It's shocking

Now it's oh my God this time he crushed some aspirin
Dissolved in love he always made the best of it Yeah he spilled it all to the sun months before punk had taken off
He had the pictures to prove, what a soar away dude is guilty of

When I think of you
It's shocking
It's shocking
It's shocking

So won't you listen to me, why can't you believe That you're breaking my heart?
'Cause these moments were part of our lives Yeah and it destroys me to see you destroy them every time

When I think of you
It's shocking
It's shocking
It's shocking

So you wanna know what's my crime?
Love I'm guilty every time
Love this love, I'm guilty every time
Love this love, I'm guilty every time
Love this love, love this love
It's shocking
