oh the simple days
in a haze out on peaceful seas and you shook me out of my dungarees and it's true it's not a lie how time does fly especially in good company elevated by the view and i got myself so terribly unglued

oh the simple days
i'm amazed despite my strategies and there can't be many days like these so gimme gimme everything this dreadful life has got to adore they said i had enough but now i think i really need some more cause i like the sounds of my feet hitting the ground don't be so afraid you've got it made you're only 25 but johnny black and humbolt green made it worth the drive and it's not a lie because it's true youth is wasted on youth especially when you let it pass you by

elevated by the view
and i've got myself so totally confused gimme gimme everything this dreadful life has got to adore

some more

everybody gets so wrapped around the variables but i was never very good at math at all everybody gets so wrapped around them and i guess that i would too

i'm not in the mood

some more

adore

some more

adore

some more

cause i like the sound of my feet hitting the ground i like that sound
