We've been talking 'bout this thing for far too long
Watching the world go by
Afraid that one of us would button up
And change their mind but still you know we gotta try

Won't you ever think of asking me to be your girl
Or making love to me
Better make your move
Maybe then I'll start to show how I really feel

'Cause I got to get a little bit of your love baby
Got to get a little bit of your love baby

We've been talking 'bout this thing for far too long
Watching the world go by
Afraid that one of us would button up
And change their mind but still you know we gotta try

Won't you ever think of asking me to be your girl
Or making love to me
Better make your move
Maybe then I'll start to show how I really feel

'Cause I got to get a little bit of your love baby
Got to get a little bit of your love baby

There'll never be another all my life
Still I keep waiting to say that you're mine
There'll never be no other on my mind
'Cos all these things I've been missing
They just keep me wishing

Just a little bit, just a little bit, yeah
'Cause I got to get a little bit of your love baby
Got to get a little bit of your love baby
Just a little bit, just a little bit, yeah

'Cause I got to get a little bit of your love baby
You got, you got, you got, you got, you got, you got, got, got
Just a little bit, just a little bit, yeah
Gets your love

Gets your love

Gets your love
