Oh baby

Oh.

Check it.

I was just strolling through my life oh baby

When you came to me like summer's end

I could feel my very moves (?) were changing

Life would never be the same again

I can see through your intentions baby

One to one that's the way it's going to be today

I can dream those sweet temptations baby

Love could be in it you know that you'll begin it baby

S.O.S. I've been tryin' to do the right thing

But your love's only making it hard for me

S.O.S. I've been tryin' to do the right thing

But your love's only making it hard for me

I left my memories of another lover

Long before I knew I felt that way

It was I found my lost illusion

You restored my sense of how to play

I can feel the right connection baby

One to one that's the way it's going to be today

It could still lead to affection baby

Love could be in it you know that you'll begin it baby

S.O.S. I've been tryin' to do the right thing

But your love's only making it hard for me

S.O.S. I've been tryin' to do the right thing

But your love's only making it hard for me

You make it hard for me

S.O.S. I've been tryin' to do the right thing

But your love's only making it hard for me

Your lovin' baby

S.O.S. I've been tryin' to do the right thing

But your love's only making it hard for me

For me

Your lovin'

Your lovin'

Ohhh.

Your lovin'

You know you make it hard for me

S.O.S. I've been tryin' to do the right thing

But your love's only making it hard for me-acap
