[Verse 1:]

It's a whole new day
Whole new way
Whole new of
Whole new life
Whole new game
I told you lames
Fucked it up for me so I throw you shame
I'm on this path to extend my honest wrath
I'm on a journey to keep the fire burning
Brightly to light the
Torch that will guide me
Also will drive me that force that's inside of me
I'm a fighter disguised as a writer
Don't go for confrontation, but I won't stop debatin'
On a mass level
Call out the black kettle
Considerate hypocrite
I'm basic with the treble
My face is getting leveled
Cause my age
I'm getting hella old
In better mode wiser now never known
That you could sell a poem
To hit the spot in every bone
Swear on you I've never known
Swear it's true never know

[Chorus:]

Come on have a drink
Let's conversate and speak
Tell me bout your day
What about your week
Tell me what you did
Tell me who ya saw
I'm interested to hear
Might as well tell it all
Yeah let's have a drink
Let's conversate and speak
Tell me bout your day
What about your week
Tell me what you did

Tell me who ya saw
I'm interested to hear
Might as well tell it all

[Verse 2:]

It's the same old guy
Same old rhymes
Not sayin' I recycle
It's my same old mind
That saves old times as the days roll by
Roll by quickly
Next week I'm turnin' 50
60 miles an hour
Shit's hyper-powered
Shit goes to fast never stops -life's a coward
But I'm slightly bothered
My eye sight's a problem
Glasses in the 3rd grade
I look like my father
So with the quickness carry on same old traditions
Searchin' for success with-
Disabled visions
Make bold decisions from the lessons that I learnt
But my heart gets in the way so my chest is always hurt
So I'm extra with the work
To protect my every worth
Protect my every worth as I'm sweatin' through my shirt
Being regular is burnt
Not every one can do it
Being special's sittin' earnt.

[Chorus:]

Come on have a drink
Tell me bout your day
What about your week
Tell me what you did,
Tell me who ya saw
I'm interested to hear
Might as well tell it all
Let's have another drink
Let's conversate and speak
Tell me bout your day
What about your week
Tell me who you did,
Tell me what ya saw
Might as well tell it all

[Verse 3:]

Well I guess today was alright
I made it though right?
I'm sittin' here spillin' so I'd say I'm good at livin'
I seen alotta children
Grow into men and women
Learnin' bout life
Findin' out their positions
It's the same old world with a whole new twist on it
It's easy now to exist and get knowledge
That's why the kids in college
That's why this kid is modest
Very fortunate for what I got
That's why this kid is honest and
Call me an egomaniac cause it's all about me
Sometimes I trip and forget that it's all about we
Not about weed, shoutin' bout cheese
Tried that and forgot about me
So thank you for getting this
Hope I made u interested
Open to suggestions I'm a poet into listenin'
I vote for friendliness
No more of this envy shit
I know this the start but
This is how I'll finish it.

[Chorus:]

Come on have a drink
Tell me bout your day
What about your week
Tell me what you did,
Tell me who ya saw
I'm interested to hear
Might as well tell it all
Tell me bout your day
What about your week
Tell me what you did,
Tell me who ya saw
I'm interested to hear
