Yeah I thought that you loved me, I mean these days u see me and you don't even hug me.

Now you and I, yeah we shared something special are you out of your mind boy Give me one more try cause everything you do got me falling in love. Yeah

I didn't wanna lose ya baby but then u turned into a prick I never fort u would have done a thing like this.

U said u loved me but I guess that was just a lie. it's something u no u can't deny.

So y u hanging around me I fort it was over. Stop. don't lie to me.

I don't want this to end but u driving me round the bend. So just walk away u no it's at an end there's nothing u can do now you're just a friend. I'm just like a trend and then I'm gone.

It doesn't matter bout me. U got your bitch and I got no body.

I really wish u felt the same about me.

[Chorus]

U ain't heard nothing like this nahh

U ain't heard nothing like this

It's my first rap so don't diss

Cuz u ain't heard nothing like this

I had 2 hide ma passion 4 hip hop and rap.

My mum wouldn't approve and ma dad fort it was crap.

But now I'm older don't care what they fink it's up 2 me

I'm old enough 2 drink.

I don't take drugs or smoke or nothing but it's ma music it's ma life so I ignore the tuting.

I don't need no fronting. I'm the badest girl in town but u don't know it yet.

And I bet u don't believe me.

I ain't boasting bout ma songs but I no that most of u all got it wrong.

U all fink I'm a good lil girl well I tell u something. Good girls don't stay good 4 long and now I got the guts 2 shut u all up with ma songs.

I love the rappers like n dubz and Kanye yeah and now it's my turn 2 shine so don't block out the light.

[Chorus]

U ain't heard nothing like this nahh

U ain't heard nothing like this

It's my first rap so don't diss

Cuz u ain't heard nothing like this

I wanna let the one guy I love no how I feel. But he's already taken and I can't help that.

I am just a lil rat

Scurrying round his feet wishing he would notice me.

I want to be free from the way that I feel. But that isn't ever gunna happen because I'm trapped in this hell hole.

I'm screaming out louder for the lil hope I got left and I need to stop rapping because I'm out of breath!

[Chorus]

U ain't heard nothing like this nahh

U ain't heard nothing like this

It's my first rap so don't diss

Cuz u ain't heard nothing like this

I'm telling u u ain't blud!
