All the words cant say Hey Pops please dont fear
The final nod of love was there And I cant say it all right here
But maybe this moment we can share

Hey Pops Im sad too
I cant explain the pain of losing you
And I can smile as I cry here alone Cuz in this final stretch we made it home

Hey Pops thanks for these beautiful gifts
And this instinct to win far surpasses anything
And hey Pops one more thing

No matter what these tears bring Ill find joy through the rain

tears bring.... joy through the rain
tears bring.... joy through the rain
tears bring.... joy through the rain
tears bring.... joy through the rain
tears bring.... joy through the rain
tears bring.... joy through the rain
