headed if you're stepping in my direction direction provided steel town is where I'm residin' residin' in my mind is all the thoughts of leavin' you blind blind to what surrounds when my lyrics reach your ear drum drum and base is all I need to wipe out so now I rock rhymes that make a lot of sense don't talk nonsense at all when I'm shootin' this ill type scripture so everybody gets the picture that my shits boom bap so everybody step back ohhh-a-aaaah hip hop and rock and rock and roll are causin' total devastation ohhh-a-aaaah people tried it before it never sat quite right ohhh-a-aaaah lovin' the hip rock a new style of conversation

ohhh-a-aaaah bein' true to myself and now it sits quite nice critics want to tell me that I'm causin' too many crossovers with the genres that I'm choosin' abusin' the system of creativity but rules are meant to be broken as you are witnessing here comes the drunken mountie able and willing I'm shooting lyrics that kill getting everybody high put you fists in the sky no longer will I have to struggle with the lame idea that music is becomin too predictable susceptible to media hype and all the hype that surrounds you when I'm rocking the mic
