I put the tea into the cup
And watch the lazy water boil
I catch the summer day before me
As the heat starts to uncoil

Papaparap
Papaparap

I smile
When I catch you sleeping
Dream
Of the days gone by
Breathe
I know you're with me
Cry
Cause I know you're mine

It's the day that goes on slowly
As we shile away the time
Nothing's going on forever
As I've got your hand on mine

I smile when I catch you sleeping
Dream of the days gone by
Breathe
I know you're mine
Cry
Cause I know you're mine

Smile...
Dream...
Breathe...
Cry...
