you tell me i'm the one for you i'm not so sure if what you're saying's true cause i don't give my heart that easily and i'm so confused why you choose me baby i, don't understand it you got that strong hold on

me baby i, don't recommend it the way you keep pushing
me

you tell me that i light up your world why do i fear you're with other girls or maybe i'm just the one who's acting silly you're just a dream come true i don't know why you still want me

me
me

don't worry baby, you don't have to sweet talk me or second guess yourself and feel you should agree i just don't want to move too fast, no no cause i love us,
and don't you rush
and if you're true you'll make it last (repeat)

me
me
