I'm going back to the time when we owned this town
Down Powder Mill Lane and the battlegrounds
We were friends and lovers and clueless clowns
I didn't know I was finding out how I'd be torn from you
When we talked about things we were gonna do
We were wide eyed dreamers and wiser too
We'd go down to the rides on east parade
By the lights of the palace arcade and watch night
Coming down on the sovereign light caf  
I'm begging you for some sign but you still got nothing to say
Don't turn your back on me, don't walk away
I'm a better man now than I was that day
Let's go down to the rides on east parade
By the lights of the palace arcade and watch night
Coming down on the sovereign light caf  
Let's go down to the bandstand on the pier
Watch the drunks and the lovers appear to take turns as the stars and the sovereign light caf  
I wheel my bike off the train,
Up the north trade road
And look for you on marley lane,
In every building and every street side,
Oh why did we ever go so far from home?
But you've got nothing to hide, you can't change who you really are
You can get a big house and a faster car
You can run away boy, but you won't go far
Let's go down to the rides on east parade
By the lights of the palace arcade and watch night
Coming down on the sovereign light caf  
Let's go down to the bandstand on the pier
Watch the drunks and the lovers appear
To take turns as the stars and the sovereign light caf  
sha la la la la y eh, yeah,
I'm going where the people know my name.
