When will you stop crying?
My beauty by the sea
I'll return to you, I promise
When I've found my harmony

In a world of
Stolen favors
Where cold hearts seem to reign
There's a place I love to go now
She helps me heal the pain

Vancouver, you're the only one for me
Vancouver, babe, I love your ocean breeze
Vancouver, you're the only one for me
Vancouver, my baby Beauty by the sea.

In a world of
Bitter choices
Where money rules the heart
There's a place you find real people
She accepts you for who you are

In a world of Disillusion
Where dreams turn to despair
There's a place that keeps me hoping
She's my castle in the air

Vancouver, you're the only one for me
Vancouver, babe, I love your ocean breeze
Vancouver, you're the only one for me
Vancouver, my baby Beauty by the sea.
